

Willie Nelson

"My Own Peculiar Way"

Visit "My Own Peculiar Way" on MotoLyrics.com

It would be a comfort just to know you never doubt me
Even though I give you cause most every day
Sometimes I think that you'd be better off without me
Although I love you in my own peculiar way

And don't doubt mine love if sometimes my mind should wonder
To a suddenly remembered yesterday
But my mind could never stay too long away from you
And I'll always love you in my own peculiar way

And though I may not always be the way you'd have me
be
And though my faults may grow in number day by day
Let no one ever say that I've ever been untrue
I'll always love you in my own peculiar way

And though I may not always be the way you'd have me
be
And though my faults may grow in number day by day
Let no one ever say that I've ever been untrue
I'll always love you in my own peculiar way
I'll always love you in my own peculiar way

Visit Willie Nelson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.