Memories are haunting you
And they're making you feel blue
Darling a penny for your thoughts

Are you thinking of the past
And a love that didn't last
Darling a penny for your thoughts

And it hurts me so to see the sorrow
Written on your face
And I hope and pray that some tomorrow
I can take his place

But if someday we should part
You can say a broken heart
Offered a penny for your thoughts

And it hurts me so to see the sorrow
Written on your face
And I hope and pray that some tomorrow
I can take his place

And if someday we should part
You can say a broken heart
Offered a penny for your thoughts
Offered a penny for your thoughts
