You asked me if I'd care
If you danced with Joe
I said yes it's all right
But my heart whispered no
For inside I was crying
For last night it was Jim
Must I play second fiddle
While you're dancing with them
Could it be maybe
I'm just imagining things
Do I believe I'm second with you
Only you know the answer
Is it me or Joe or Jim
Must I play second fiddle
While you're dancing with them

[fiddle]

Only you know the answer...
