Some other time, I'll forget you
And start my life anew
But not just now, I won't forget you
'Cause I've spent too much time loving you

I know I could forget you if I wanted to
But there's still ten thousand dreams
That I must dream of you

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin'
The love that came my way
Then I'll forget I ever loved you
Some other time but not today

I know I could forget you if I wanted to
But there's still ten thousand dreams
That I must dream of you

Some other time, I'll stop rememberin'
The love that came my way
Then I'll forget I ever loved you
Some other time but not today
