Lonely nights I cannot sleep I just lie awake and weep
Wondering if I'll get a chance to make things right Don't you have a heart at all, can't you see my teardrops fall
They are tears I shed for you these lonely nights

Won't you reconsider this you're the one dear, that I miss
Won't you come back here and say that you'll be mine
We could be so happy then I will love you till no end
And there would be no broken hearts no lonely nights

Lonely nights I cannot sleep I just lie awake and weep
Wondering if I'll get a chance to make things right
Don't you have a heart at all, can't you see my
teardrops fall
They are tears I shed for you these lonely nights

Won't you reconsider this you're the one dear, that I
miss
Won't you come back here and say that you'll be mine
We could be so happy then I will love you till no end
And there would be no broken hearts no lonely nights

Lonely nights I cannot sleep I just lie awake and weep
Wondering if I'll get a chance to make things right
Don't you have a heart at all, can't you see my
teardrops fall
They are tears I shed for you these lonely nights
They are tears I shed for you these lonely nights
They are tears I shed for you these lonely nights
