we've all seen before
Let me tell you some more)

Washing the dishes scrubbing the floors Caring for someone who don't care anymore Learning to hate all the things that she once loved to do Like washing his shirts and never complaining except of red stains on the collars Ironin' and cryin' cryin' and ironin' caring for someone who don't care anymore Someday she'll just walk away

(Phases and stages circles and cycles scenes that
we've all seen before
Let me tell you some more)
