She thinks if she just holds on
He will get it back together
On his good days he's a good man
And he fills up all her dreams

On his bad days he's the devil
And it's hell to stand beside him
But she thinks if she will love him
Life will be what once it seemed

Women who love too much
Burning fires they have to touch
Give until there's nothing left
To give use up life, to help men live

Women who love too much
Just can't leave the dark alone
Fall in love with the unknown
They will go until they're gone

He knows he loves too little
And he takes her in his knowing
On the bad days when he needs her
She's the best hope that he's had

And he knows that he's the weak one
And he doesn't want to know it
And he holds on to her loving
Though he knows it's all so sad

Women who love too much
Women who love too much
