you heard you taught the times again we lived in sadness,

you walked away and didnt care just look inside me, you knew that il be there, always around you and now this is your turn to understand me, i lost a spirit in my life and now you know just how it feels,

i lost a spirit in my like the day you walked out on me, i lost a spirit in my life and now you no just how it feels,
i lost a spirit in my life but il get back again(again), you used to be all that i loved, now i cant stand you, you called me twice to say ur wrong, what do you want from me,

just try to make it on your own, your fine without me, cus now this is your turn to understand me, (repeat chorus)
