The sun goes down and leaves me sad and blue
The iron curtain falls on this cold war with you For you won't speak and I won't speak, it's true Two stubborn people with this cold war to go through

Why? Oh, why should love ever come to couples like you and me?
Whose cold, cold wars are never won and whose hearts just can't be free
So, let's make up or let's just say we're through
I just can't stand another cold, cold war with you

Why? Oh, why should love ever come to couples like
you and me?
Whose cold, cold wars are never done and whose hearts just can't be free Or let's do about it or let's just say we're through
I just can't stand another cold, cold war with you

I just can't stand another cold, cold war with you
