Our time has come today
And young hearts will go their way
Can't put it off another day
We don't care what others say
They say we don't listen anyway
Cause our time has come today
The rules have changed today
Out of luck and no place to stay
Thinking about how suddenly
My love has flown away
Now my chance has come and gone
On my own I have to roam
See I have no home
I just have no home
And now the time has come
And there's no place to run
I won't be burned up by the sun
Then again I've had my fun
I've shoved and pushed aside
I was crushed by a tumbling tide
Strapped down
Psychoanalyzed
But now the time has come
There are things to be realized
Cause time has come today
Our time has come today
