Listen close listen hard
To the tale of Violet Beauregard
This genthe she sees nno wrong
In chewing, chewing, chewing, chewing,
Chewing, chewing all day long
Chewing, chewing all day long
Yeah
She gose on chewing till at last
Her chewing muscles grow so vast
And her face with a giant chin
Sticks out just like a violin
Chewing, chewing all day long
Chewing, chewing all day long
For years and years she chews away
Her jaws get stronger everyday
And with one great tremendous chew
They bite the poor girls tonuge in two
And that's why we try so hard
To save miss Violet Beauregarde
Chewing, chewing all day long
Chewing, chewing all day long
Chewing, chewing, chewing, chewing
Chewing, chewing all day long...
