She's the kind of girl who takes a chance
She's living for a Harlequin Romance
She believes in every lie she's told
Pour her a line and she'll drink it in

Chorus:

Whatcha gonna go when it all falls down
Mr Anybody won't be around
When it comes crashing to the ground
Ms. Innocence what have you lost or found?
She falls in love with every guy she meets
Her affection's won so easily
'Cause he's so charming, so disarming
He fills her head with romantic dreams

Chorus:

Whatcha gonna do when it all falls down
Mr. Anybody wont be around
When it comes crashing to the ground
Ms. Innocence, what have you lost or found?
Infatuation, fascination
There's so much she have stands to live

(Chorus)
