My mind is a bridge for your mem'ry
For you're crossing my mind all the time

Each dawn brings another day of dying
For life was when your sweet love was mine
My mind is a bridge for your mem'ry
For you're crossing my mind all the time

Each and every treasure possession
Walked out when you left me behind
My mind is a bridge for your mem'ry
For you're crossing my mind all the time

Daylight for me is filled with darkness green grass and flowers're away
Each and every heartbeat brings mem'ries of yesterday
And the winter's natural loser of heartbreak
You seperated the sun from the shine
My mind is a bridge for your mem'ry
For you're crossing my mind all the time
Yes you're crossing my mind all the time
