"Parting Is Such Sweet Sorrow"

Parting is such sweet sorrow after all these precious dreams we've realized Parting is such sweet sorrow it's hard to keep from being mistyized

I told you love was not a bed of roses
But you were sure there'll be no hope for us
You got a taste of hurt that life discloses And the pain was just a little bit too much

Parting is such sweet sorrow looking into your heart before that last goodbye Parting is such sweet sorrow I still believe we'll make it if we try
