Human columns
Hardened into stone
In loving memory...
Cleaned and inscripted
A linear aesthetic epitaph

Lying in my arl
Your requiem's complete
Singing wall of death
Crawling on remains
A lachrymator (of joy)
Cold stiffens the joints
Hard like a mortician
Coroner of hate
(Unclip bolt under roof
To eliminate any rope drag)
Beautifully brutal
Tattooed in the book
Emotionally historic
Cadavericly classic
An ecstaserial grave display
