Hear the rain fallin' down,
And I feel so alone.
Hear the rain fallin' down,
And I know I've got no one.

They say there's plenty of fish in the sea.
They say that I'll find someone for me.
Met a girl yesterday,
I was so nervous, didn't know hat to say.
Met a girl yesterday,
My God, I don't even know her name.
But there's plenty of fish in the sea.
And I still might find someone for me.
Sittin' here watchin' the wind,

Wish i wasn't alone again.
Sittin' here watchin' the wind,
I saw a whisper of change begin.
There's plenty of fish in the sea.
I hope I may find someone for me.
The shy is clearing now.
The moon is shining through the clouds.
The sky is getting clearer now,
And I know I'm not alone any more.
Well, there's plenty of fish in the sea,
I know I'll find someone for me.
