

Minor Threat "No Reason"

So you hate me. That's the way it goes. What the fuck? I guess I'll never know. If it makes you feel better, then I guess it's just as good. You know
I'll never accept it., 'Cause I never thought that you could.
Sit in the same room. We look the other way. Fuck conversation. We've got nothing to say. I'm sure we both hate to be ignored.
Haven't we met
someplace before?
What's the problem? Is it justified? Or are we dealing with our fucking prides? Do you really want to leave it alone? I don't know what it's worth
to you, it's all I fucking own.
Haven't we met before?
