The ice has melted at the polar caps as Mother Earth gives in to destiny The warning signs already passed cleansing all impurities
The Earth rumbles like a growling lion ready to feast it's prey Stars are spinning in the sky as the night turns into day

Volcanos erupt - spilling earth's blood
Belching out lava - destroys all intact
Tidal waves crash - killing as much floodind the land, changing the map
Tornados touch down - reaping the whirlwind leading to mass devastation
Tremors throughout - the earth tilts to its side
Leading to man's extinction

Darkened clouds all over head like thundering hooves of nightmares
The sun now travels north and south screaming in the air Prophecies told a shift of the axis killing all the evil from the world

Just like Lemuria and Atlantis when a man destroys his hearth, it's cold

Volcanos erupt - spilling earth's blood
Belching out lava - destroys all intact
Tidal waves crash - killing as much
floodind the land, changing the map
Tornados touch down - reaping the whirlwind
leading to mass devastation
Tremors throughout - the earth tilts to its side
Leading to man's extinction

Volcanos erupt - spilling earth's blood
Belching out lava - destroys all intact
Tidal waves crash - killing as much
floodind the land, changing the map
Tornados touch down - reaping the whirlwind

leading to mass devastation
Tremors throughout - the earth tilts to its side
Leading to man's extinction
Extinction...
