"So Long"

Oh on a distant day/all is still and all is gray
I'm just killing time/at the traffic light
And I think I saw a reflection of you/in a puddle of blood lit up by the moon
I think that I think too much

It's been so long (since I saw you)
It's been so long (since I saw you)

What have I come to be/just another fading memory
In the back of your mind/oh give it time
And I think I saw a reflection of you/in a puddle of
blood lit up by the moon
I think that I think too much

It's been so long (since I saw you)
It's been so long (since I saw you)

Baby when we were young/and we didn't know it then How fast the time goes by/time never forgets / you

It's been so long (since I saw you)
It's been so long (since I saw you)

In a puddle of blood lit up by the moon
In a puddle of blood/I think I saw you
