Written by: Ricky Kinchen, Stokley Williams

Stokley sings

Can I get to know you

Cause I'm cravin to hold ya

Just let me share

All the things that are in my head

You should be havin fun

With the only one

You giv your love to me

Won't you let me complete you baby

Chorus

Pretty lady, you might think I'm crazy

Pretty lady, won't you be mine

Pretty lady, you should be having my baby

Pretty lady, can we spend some time

Charlie sings

I've been in love before

I'm not afraid you see

I just want to be

The only man you would ever need

Say what you want

Cause I'm here to please you

I'll give you my credit card

Baby and my keys (well maybe not to the ride, but)

Chorus

Bridge

And when you smil, like the ocean wide

So beautiful

When I hold you close, and pour it out

My hear and soul

So plentiful

Chorus w/Adlib to end
