I like long drives the radio is on all night cause you say so lying beside your beautiful bones candlelight
and heaving tones
this avalanche of love and skin collides conquers and collapses
I breathe your breath
I smell you skin
I taste your saddened sentiment

I'll breathe your breath
I smell you sin
