Donated er eyes
when she was young and shy hated er awkward breasts and felt the yawn in skylines with care

set sweet
to hear existent beat to hold the tangible and drift an ever so gently second summer skyyy

Donated her eyes
Donated her eyes
to feel her actual senses so sweet 16
to feel what life was like

could you actually imagine if

go back to sleep
you yellowed bellied freaks are freed of god and modern science

if i could only sleep if i could stop imagining if the dreams weren't after me he cursed and swore blankerd the defenint almost sombering silence the jingle jangle and heed the strangle and shes terrable and fucking meaningless
