There's a place where I can go everytime I close my eyes
It's the place where you and I can meet again
Just like birds in the sky, simply carried by the wind
Are your fingers on the keys you're playin' for me?
When things get tough and it's hard to believe
I hear you say be strong, I know you're halfway there
So don't give up now, everything's alright.
For the best things are yet to come
And everyday is full of magic
I hear my heart sing a lullaby
And I feel safe in the arms of this big world.
The way I look my loveful life, guess I've got it all from you
And can hear me sing my song from paradise?
I am so grateful I had you in my life
I know I can be strong I'm followin' my dreams
So I won't give up now everything's alright
For the best things are yet to come
And everyday is full of magic
I hear my heart sing a lullaby
And I feel safe in the arms of this big world
