"Afterlife"

Can you feel them, feel the watching from beyond
That eerie feeling deep inside the one you can't explain
Troubled souls ignored like a ship lost at sea
It's like the distance growing deeper between you and me
How do you feel knowing times at it's end
Decomposed like the corpse we all turn to be Can't stop thinking about the times I'm missing
It's an untold tale of this story of betrayal
Time goes by I can watch them die
No one hears you no one sees you can I hear the cry
As time passes by Sometimes I feel like I've passed on by Can't stop wandering into the afterlife
Afterlife
I can't stop No
I won't stop No
I've put too much into this
