"Day By Day"

Day by day we live our lives not knowing
What's around the corner?
Sick of living with hate
This darkened world is bringing us down
Every heartbeat is slowing down
Where the fuck were you?
You were never around
Lying in your grave
I see you despite
Believe I feel you without seeing
Day by day it grows stronger
Day by day
Can't you help but wonder what's in store for you
Timelessness eternal rest existence fading fast
You can't stop
What can't be stopped is coming for you
Ready or not it's coming for you
Ready or not
