"Half Past Lovin'"

I'm half past lovin'
And I got no more time for you,
Half past lovin'
And that's all that I can do.

Your hands keep movin'
But your face keeps standin' still.
I got no time to lose
And I ain't got time to kill.

The wheels keep turnin'
All through the night and day
Wheels keep turnin'
What else can I say?

Time keeps changin'
Like we knew it always will.
I got no time to lose
And I ain't got time to kill.

You got good timin', honey,
And your rhythm's fine as it can be.
You got good timin', babe,
And your motion's right for me.
