

Wisdom Call "Through Fire"

Visit "Through Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

I look around and what do I see it's desert land all around me

I need your sacrifice I'm lost without you

Tell me how long will I be running?

'Cause I'm running

Through fire like a long distance runner

Through fire will I see the end?

Through fire like a long distance runner

Through fire will I reach the end?

I hear you calling, calling my name

But your sweet voice is so far, far away

I need you know I can't take this any longer

Tell me how long will I be running?

'Cause I'm running

Give me your bread, your wine

It will satisfy my soul
