Mr Sorrow, I need you to know
This is more than a game
Fourteen hours, nine seconds ago
When you knew my name

Misdemeanour, I'm dying to know
What it is that I've done
All this time that I've been alone
I've been overcome
With you, you were the light in my world
You know
And you, you told my life with a song
You know

Have you forsaken me
I can't keep waiting under the water
Have you forgotten me
I'm not a stranger
I can't keep waiting

If I believe in something then I'll be okay
If I can make it through just tonight

Have you forsaken me
I can't keep waiting under the water
Have you forgotten me
I'm not a stranger
I can't keep waiting
For your love

Mr Sorrow, I need you to know
This is more than a game
