The long drive to break down
Lets keep the smiling to a minimum
Keep the laughing/frowning at none
Early morning drivers
With their early morning cries
This is our life
I know we're headed to disaster
At least we'll get there a lot faster
And there is something about this
I wish we didn't have to do
I hate the 9 to 5
Better known as the early morning drive
I know the darkness is taking over you
But give it a reason to pull through
The long drive to breakdown a ride to 9 to 5 or maybe not
