We wait in line, standing still
This seems like forever
This mess will never clear
These hearts are beating here
Will these people ever go
Or will I wait forever?
This mess will never clear
These hearts are beating near...

Near each other, forced apart

The day that we all lived together in infamy

The end of the live will never see true freedom once again
And will always be the end of the line

So many lives impacted, so many lives destroyed
So take your false sympathies and drive on by

I'm front in line, standing still
I'm not all together
Living mess on the road
Changes everything I know
Horns blazing, heart fading
My vision's blacking out
Living mess on the road
Changes everything I know

I will cherish the day you bled my solace away
And I will bleed for you tonight

I will bleed for you, I will always bleed for you
I will bleed for you, I will always die for you
I will bleed for you, I will die for you
