There's no need for a plan B

COME ON!!

We've been, through tougher times
And stuck with, these cliched lines
And yet we've grown up, we've grown up

Through all, the friends and foes
We'll find out, who's truly close to us
Cuz the bets against us never win

Be sure, there's no need for a plan B

You won't get by on just your smile
(we will not give up on all our dreams)
We've been so many places, seen so many faces
(and you will see, we'll stick it out until the end)
You won't get by on just your smile
(we will not give up on all our dreams)
And all those plastic faces, they look the same to me
(and you will see, we'll stick it out until the end)

So many, situations
Have left, us empty handed
So go grab the keys, it wont write itself
And we know, to look up when we need hope
Cuz the troubled souls are crying for a way to feel at home

Be sure, there's no need for a plan B

You won't get by on just your smile
(we will not give up on all our dreams)
We've been so many places, seen so many faces
(and you will see, we'll stick it out until the end)
You won't get by on just your smile
(we will not give up on all our dreams)
And all those plastic faces, they look the same to me
(and you will see, we'll stick it out until the end)

We won't go home, we won't go home

And we are far, from home this time
(you won't get by, on just your smile)

WE ALL KNOW, THAT WE WONT GO
