I'm not sure if it happened overnight
But when I woke up the world didn't fit me right
I keep trying to hold on
It just feels like everything's wrong

Bar the windows lock the doors
I'm not leaving home tonight
I swear I'd tear myself apart
With what's behind these eyes

No matter where I go
I can't stay too long
Just no sense in getting comfortable
Before the sun comes up
The alarm is going off
And it's time to move on

I spent the better part of last night
Convincing myself that I could set things straight
'Cause my life won't wait
I spent the better part of my life
From birth until today
Tripping over my words
And just what they meant to me

I keep breaking my legs
Just to build up speed
I've got the sickest obsession
With the things I think I need
But I can work it out (just let me work it out)

Bar the windows lock the doors
I'm not leaving home tonight
I swear I'd tear myself apart
With what's behind these eyes

Now there's this voice inside my head and I wish that I could turn it off
Get some sleep but instead I'll stay up all night long
The tick tock from the clock and my heart beat
Now becoming one and the same
The tick tock from the clock and my heart beat

Now they have, they've become one
