(PROLOGUE)

By the last Caress of light
I wander throu shattered Horizons
Far below the scorched land
Whilst a new dawn overcomes
Engulfing the fainted stars

(THE ASTRAL DREAD)

As twilight unfurled its lament
To those of the wailing cosmos
Castaway from mourning ordained
Vast oceans in dominant spoil
(RETRIBUTION)

He destined his peoples tragedy
At the claws of the heathens befoul
Overshadows the brightest star
Desolation is the wielder of might

(TORMENTATION)

In a shower of gold we fall
With an illusion of crumbling galaxies
I shant not pity the heavens
For they shant not pity me...
