Tonight I'll be dreaming home alone in my bed.
I do my best thinking when I'm all by myself.
Wonder where you are now and if you're feeling the same.
And if you got the letter that I sent yesterday.

What can I do now just to make things right?
Cause I haven't slept now in the past three nights.
Cause I want to hold you for all your days.
Take my hand; just let me show you the way.
And I want to hold you; let's make it right.
Cause I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.

Now somebody told me everything that you said.
And how you look out your window before you crawl into bed?
And you refuse to move on now cause you're feeling the same.
And there are tears on the letter that I sent yesterday.

What can I do now just to fix this tonight?
Cause I won't sleep until we make things right.
Cause I want to hold you for all your days.
Take my hand; just let me show you the way.
And I want to hold you, we'll make it right.
Cause I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.

Cause I want to hold you for all your days.
Take my hand; just let me show you the way.
And I want to hold you; let's make it right.
Cause I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.

And I want to hold you for all your days.
Take my hand; just let me show you the way.
And I want to hold you, we'll make it right.
Cause I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.

And I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.
And I'll be with you now for the rest of your life.
