CHORUS:

Empty I have nothing more for you
You've done plenty thank you
Envy I have none of it for you
Now I'm empty thank you

I am but a dust you'll wipe away
I got it lucky is what you'll say
I am merely something you'll suck dry
To fill a part of you that's just a lie

CHORUS

Take everything that's mine
Break what you leave behind
Fake that you care for me
Then bake my brain at a hundred degrees

Strip me of my soul
Quit once you're whole
Spit in my face
Forget me once I'm in my place

CHORUS

Everything I thought I was for you
And everything I thought you were for me
Now I see
You are my enemy

CHORUS

You save me, from eternal rest
You kill me, you kill me
And bring me, and bring me
And bring me to my death
