I gave you everything but all you did was take
I gave you all my strength now everything's in vain
I said you couldn't hurt me that was just a lie
I swear this was the last time
I'm Broken
scattered into pieces
shattered in the reasons
standing here I'm broken
I gave you everything but all I got was hate I'm trying to erase the misery you made
I said you couldn't hurt me that was just a lie
I swear this was the last time
I'm Broken
standing here I'm broken
I put my trust in you endured all your pain and now I'm awake now the tables turn I'm gone without a trace she never new a thing
standing here I'm broken
