She falls along the steps that lead her
I'll crawl along this glass while bleeding
If jealousy was a knife we'd all be dead
Oh unfaithful, when will you find what your looking for?

Never she cries out forever
She never called out your name
I've witnessed this before
She needs to, she needs you

The death
The crucifixion(x2)

There is no headlights turn them all out tonight
She turns around to her side, never again to notice
Anything from anyone, there is no headlights

Father part the clouds in skies
For am I to see the cities of gold
So beautiful

Doodoo
Dadadadadadad

She falls along the steps that lead her
I'll be crawling along this glass while bleeding
She never knew what to make of it
The silhouette falls to the floor

She Falls along the steps that lead her
I'll crawl along this glass while bleeding
If jealousy was a knife we'd all be dead
Oh, unfaithful when will you find what your looking for?
