Stillness, healing bless
The silence leading my life
I lay down, still and calm
And I just keep on faking dreams
Am I fooling myself ?

For the silence and still fill my heart
Living ain't fun like rest and dream
And forevermore in the silence of daydreaming

Sigh, take a last breath and free your mind
Sigh, take a last breath and free your mind
Tranquil and thankful
I'm slowly giving in
Now I am freed of the old days

For the silence and still fill my heart
Living ain't fun like rest and dream
And forevermore in the silence of daydreaming

Sigh, take a last breath and free your mind
Sigh, take a last breath and free your mind
Sigh, take a last breath...
