I'm not looking back
Where everything was so familiar
But so far away, so far away

Oh my there is no ending
I can't escape for this anymore
Oh God there's no way outta here
The walls are closing in
Everthing I've ever loved is gone
Take this for what it's worth
I've found there is no meaning
This is the end of me
And I'm not holding back
The worst is over
There's no tomorrow
This is your way out

My God you lost a world you tried to make us love
We haven't seen the world
Since you took our bodies and led them to the skies
As it carries us away
I can feel his hands as they pull me in
By your grace God let me fly
Set me free
Let me fly
God let me fly
