Bringing up spending all you've got
Got to buy yourself more time
Working is getting you high
High up and down the line
No doubt everybody knows
No love will wait for you down the line
You don't need nobody no one
Move fast good time won't last
Fast moving no way you will let go
Until six feet under for another show
And show the world you took the blow
Blow to your heart you will know

You're going to break down if you don't slow down
You're going to break down if you don't slow down
You're going to break down if you don't slow down
You're going to break down if you don't slow down

SOLO

Bringing up spending all you've got
Got to buy yourself more time
Working is getting you high
High up and down on the line
No doubt everybody knows
No love will wait for you down the line woman

You're going to break down if you don't slow down
You're going to break down if you don't slow down
