Listen my baby listen the story,
U broke the window in my territory,
I'd rather kill u, cuz u I'll and there is a thousand just like your head,
Just like your hands, just like your mouth, just like garbage in the street I found.
U were killed by the drugs, but sometimes I think That drugs is everything what I need the most.
U know I wish I could kill the drugs, I just wishin u luck,
But what is the cost? Of ewerything.

U took a needle and inject all your life in my veins,
I feel responsible for yourself, but I just can't help, U.
And we know where is true, cuz that needle was
infected,
And that needle is u.

Not my poison, but the drugs make you feel better,
Why u make yourself suffer so bad,
Why u make me feel so sad?
Why do you swallow my heart, tomorow we will be apart.
I am deep in your heart, but drugs is deeper in your brains,
U love ewerything what contains amphetamine, heroine
something beautiful,
U love when this shit get into u.

U took a needle and inject all your life in my veins,
I feel responsible for yourself, but I just can't help, U.
And we know where is true, cuz that needle was
infected,
And that needle is u.

U make yourself selfish, paranoid, sick of ewerything,
Listen the drugs comands oh my darling.
U lost yourself in abandoned city, your brains destruction slowly, killin me.
I loved u so bad, u were my luxiurious drug,
I will never forget u, If u'll fall I will catch u,
Even we Know it's gonna hurt.

U took a needle and inject all your life in my veins,
I feel responsible for yourself, but I just can't help, U.
And we know where is true, cuz that needle was
infected,
And that needle is u.
