Oh my god I cant,
Take anymore or I'll blow my brains
Against the wall
Just know that it was all my fault
After this I've had enough,
One person can only take so much
All these people who just wanna complain
Can suck it up and get outa my way

Life's gonna be a bitch
But you gotta know there's more than this
I've had it with the sob story's
They mean absolutely nothing to me

(Chorus)
I know it seems like too much
But you got one life so don't fuck it up
Stop feeling so sorry for yourself
No one cares, no one wants to help

After everything I wanna give,
Just throw in the towel, pull the trigger, you win
One person can only take so much
I'm done with this life, I've had enough

(Chorus)
I know it seems like too much
But you got one life so don't fuck it up
Stop feeling so sorry for yourself
No one cares, no one wants to help (X2)
