KASEY

Walking On eggshells,
You've been tiptoeing around,
Making excuses,
Everytime he puts you down,

LEIGH

So I force another smile,
And tell you some sweet little lie,
Cos the truth is harder to hear.

ALL (JODILEAD)

Don't take a rocket scientist
To know you can't go on like this,
So get your boots on,
You've got to move on.
Don't take a genius to know,
that you'd be better off alone,
so get your coat, don't leave a number,
You've been poison to eachother too long,
Get your boots on.

SHARON

It's not the first time,
You've got into this mess,
Yeah he's a nice guy,
But then so were all the rest.

CORRINA

And I hate to see the sparkle in your eyes begin to fade,
Whilst you wait for something to change.

ALL (JODI LEAD)

Don't take a rocket scientist
To know you can't go on like this,

So get your boots on,
You've got to move on.
Don't take a genius to know,
that you'd be better off alone,
so get your coat, don't leave a number,

You've been poison to eachother too long,

KASEY

Cause it aint it over,
Until it's over
And it's been over for a long, long time.

JODI

So don't explain, aplogize,
Don't say ya'll sleep on it tonight,
'cause you'll just change your mind.

ALL (JODI LEAD)

Don't take a rocket scientist
To know you can't go on like this,
So get your boots on,
You've got to move on.
Don't take a genius to know,
that you'd be better off alone,
so get your coat, don't leave a number,
You've been poison to eachother too long,
Don't take a rocket scientist
To know you can't go on like this,
So get your boots on,
You've got to move on.
Don't take a genius to know,
that you'd be better off alone,
Get your coat, don't leave a number,
You've been poison to eachother for too long,
Get your boots on.
