Sing yeah
It's a long long time ago
It was a strange story
A girl loved a boy
But here you have to know
When a witch loves
She loses her magic
One cold evening at home
The boy found her broom
And lies flew away
And then she looked at him
And was filled with magic
She said to him
Whilst regaining her magic

This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
In the wood, in the sea and the moon's got it, yeah
This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
Shimmering and glimmering is what I am

And Miss Elliot with that Really ugly Tweed Jumper
And those striking red shoes
They're a witness of times long ago
Close your eyes and see
That she's beautiful
But it's not the way you thought
Take care of the secrets
Old witches told

I'm not doubtful about you
I tie knots in my shoe laces
Let me sleep in your arms
We're at home where we're loved

This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
In the wood, in the sea and the moon's got it, yeah
This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
It will make you lose if you think about shoes

This is witchcraft.

This is witchcraft.

Yes,

This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
In the wood, in the sea and the moon's got it, yeah
This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
Shimmering and glimmering is what I am

This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
In the wood, in the sea and the moon's got it, yeah
This is witchcraft babe and it is everywhere
It will make you loose if you think about shoes

This is witchcraft, babe.
This is witchcraft.
This is witchcraft.

This is witchcraft, babe.
This is witchcraft.
This is witchcraft.

This is witchcraft.
This is witchcraft.
