Hey alright
You don't know Noelle
She's not like other girls
She'll take you for a ride
Cut you down to size
If you don't know noelle
I'll tell you she's not like other girls
She'll tear your world apart
Man you better believe when you hear
She's got the devil in her heart

This time it's driving me out of my mind
This time I think I'm going insane
This time it's driving me out of my brain

Tell everybody she loves you
Tell everybody she cares

If you don't know noelle
I'll tell you she's not like other girls
(I hope you never meet a girl like Noelle)
She'll tear your world apart
Man you better believe when you hear
She's got the devil in her heart

This time it's driving me out of my mind
This time I think I'm going insane
This time it's driving me out of my brain

I've got a picture hanging on the wall
Everyone says it looks a lot like Noelle
But you see that that isn't me...no...no
She's a little bit off the wall
Everyone says you better watch you step
Or your gonna fall

Tell everybody she loves you
Tell everybody she cares
