I'm lucky, so lucky to be here in this rain
I'm hoping and waiting to raise a little cane

My head's up my hat's off I know it's after dark
Supposing you catch me, I'll be your little shark

The stars in the sky, if only they knew
What happens inside when I think of you

You're sweepin my socks off, I'm steady on my feet
Delicious and frightful, to me you're such a treat

I'm bashful, let's tackle this certain love affair
You'll kiss me goodnight, well, I'm hoping that you dare
The sad little heart, so so much it seems
But with that look in your eyes, now I'm in a dream

I'm lucky, so luck to be here in this rain
I'm hoping and waiting to raise a little cane

My head's up my hat's off I know it's after dark
Supposing you catch me I'll be your little shark
