We're moving faster, the world gets smaller
Sendin the message around the globe
No time wasted to get an answer
Information available to you

There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
In Mother Nature's cry
There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
The strongest will survive

It's not worth hiding in the ocean
Your big brother is watching you
And in the not so distant future
There'll be no space for you to choose

There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
In Mother Nature's cry
There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
The strongest will survive

Satellite in the sky, they're looking at your neighbour
Feeding so many lies, but I ask why, oh whyâ€¦

There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
In Mother Nature's cry
There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
The strongest will survive
There's only so much time
Before we get much older

Searchin for the sign
In Mother Nature's cry
There's only so much time
Before we get much older
Searchin for the sign
The strongest will survive
