Andy
Life rearranges
Constantly changes
Can't you see
At least we tried
Forget about pride
Andy, talk to me

Andy
Empty your mind out
Maybe you'll find out
It's not meant to be
Never regret
That we ever met
Andy, can't you see
We'll have the memories
And warmed over tears
Thinking of those happy years
Andy, Andy, c'est la vie

Andy, empty your mind out
Maybe you'll find out
It's not meant to be
Saying goodbye, does not mean we die
Andy, can't you see
We'll have the memories
And warmed over tears, thinking of
Those happy years
Andy, oh, Andy, c'est la vie
