Gonna leave today for a holiday gonna get that train, just go to spain my life's been up & down, i wanna fool around been paying my bills & now i want some thrills yeah, i love to sin but i hate the sinners i love to play but i hate to pay it's been that way long before today won't you please understand, i'm just a gambling man

just a gambling man

yeah i might die tomorrow i might die today
so i picked up my stuff i made my getaway
i will have no sorrows i will feel no pain
all the foolishness i've done was not done in vain always aimed for the long run a pair of dukes was all i had so i beg you to understand i was just playing my hand no i won't go to heaven and i won't go straight to hell i'm just another man under a woman's spell just another man, just another man just another man under a woman's spell

i beg you to understand
i'm just a gambling man
