Listen, hey look, I didn't want to separate, but with bad gravity, how we going to elevate? Sometimes you get closer from a step away, and I would never say (please don't let me go) But I just wanted her to hold me, it's funny I was trying to better her with the old me. If you don't wake up to love, why go to sleep, in the cold sheets? (please don't let me go) So none of us will fall down, and we can wear camouflage in the war house. I am not trying to run your life or walk out, so let your thoughts out. (please don't let me go) We can go our different ways, but that don't mean I want to see my son on different days. I say that with a passion, like the lyrics on my page, and we will not live again so,

(Please don't let me go, I just want you to hold me, I don't want to be lonely, I'm flying close to the ground, please don't let me go. I'm flying close to the ground, please don't let me go)

Now this is probably the first sign of madness, but as a boy I was going through mad stress, I took man of the house when my dad left, but I never had rent (please don't let me go). At sixteen on a bad flex, mum told me he was rolling for my bags then?, look I was just going through a phase, never have since, I was just acting. (please don't let me go) Because I was close to a dead end, because your stood on your own with your friends then. I said I was cool, I was spending, I was just pretending (please don't let me go). But I thank God for all of that, because you taught me how to walk without crawling back, and now I am running forward, no falling back, this is what you call a rap.

(please don't let me go, I just want you to hold me, I don't want to be lonely, I'm flying close to the ground, please don't let me go. I'm flying close to the ground, please don't let me go)

This is coming from my heart and soul saying please don't let me go (repeated in background)

(This is the sound of the harmony, you make me sing.
You bring out the best of me, in every special way, hey ohhhhh. It's the sound of my heart saying, 'Don't let go, don't let go, please don't let me go.'

I just want you to hold me, I don't want to be lonely, I'm flying close to the ground, please don't let me go, my girl, want you, need you, flying flying close to the ground, (Inaudible near the end)
